

THE HANGAR
AT REGATTA HARBOUR

THE HANGAR

A BLANK CANVAS.

The Hangar offers 20,000 square feet of open, flexible space designed to transform around each vision. From a completely blank canvas to an immersive branded environment, every event can take on an identity entirely its own.

ENDLESS POSSIBILITIES.

Expansive interiors, soaring ceilings and surrounding outdoor spaces create endless possibilities for custom layouts, large-scale installations, staging, décor and unforgettable guest experiences. No two transformations have to look the same.

HISTORY

A HISTORIC EVENT SPACE IN COCONUT GROVE

Welcome to The Hangar at Regatta Harbour, located on the historic Dinner Key waterfront in Coconut Grove, Miami's oldest neighborhood. Originally an island and later connected to the mainland in 1914, Dinner Key became an important part of Miami's aviation history. The site served as the first continental Naval Air Station in the United States and later became a base for Pan American Airways' legendary flying boats, including the Sikorsky S-41 and S-42 Clipper planes.

Today, the beautifully restored Hangar offers 20,000 square feet of interior space, bringing together historic character, waterfront surroundings and endless possibilities for unforgettable events.

MORE SPACE. MORE POSSIBILITIES.

From the expansive interior of The Hangar to its surrounding outdoor areas, the venue offers multiple settings that can be incorporated into a single event.

The front and back lawn areas provide additional opportunities for arrivals, ceremonies, cocktail receptions, activations and outdoor programming.

CORPORATE

THE ART OF HOSPITALITY

From corporate gatherings and conferences to product launches and large-scale brand activations, The Hangar offers a flexible 20,000-square-foot setting designed to transform around each event.
